Dear Professor Prempeh,

Congratulations on Your Appointment as Chairman of the Constitutional Review
Committee of Ghana

On behalf of the Management and Advisory Board of the Africa Judicial Independence Fund (AJIF), I am delighted to extend our heartfelt congratulations to you on your appointment by His Excellency President John Dramani Mahama as Chair of Ghana's Constitutional Review Committee.

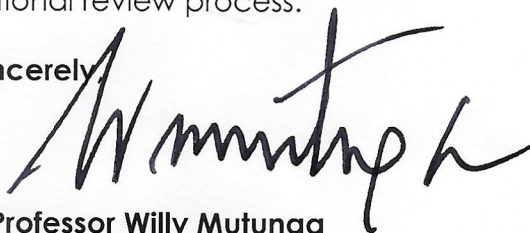

Your selection to lead this important national project is a testament to your unwavering dedication, exceptional expertise, and long-standing commitment to the principles of good governance, democracy, and the rule of law. Your distinguished contributions to constitutional scholarship and judicial independence have consistently inspired confidence, not only in Ghana but across the African continent.

We are confident that under your leadership, the Committee will fulfill its mandate to identify and address the challenges and gaps in the implementation of the 1992 Constitution. Your ability to engage with key stakeholders and guide actionable recommendations is pivotal to enhancing democratic governance in Ghana. This critical undertaking aligns seamlessly with AJIF's mission to promote judicial independence and strengthen the institutional frameworks underpinning the rule of law in Africa.

Please be assured of AJIF's unwavering support as you embark on this significant journey. We are eager to witness the impactful outcomes of the Committee's work and remain committed to collaborating with you in areas of mutual interest.

Once again, congratulations on this well-deserved appointment. We wish you and the entire Committee every success in achieving the noble objectives of this constitutional review process.

Yours sincerely,

Justice Professor Willy Mutunga
Advisory Board Chair (AJIF)
